A new way to working capital

We utilize revenue-based financing to get your business the funding it needs in the form of an investment, not a loan. That means we purchase a portion of your future receivables to provide you with working capital today.

Money for your business when you need it most

With the Flex Line you'll have 24/7 access to business funding - all right from our mobile app.
Spending limits change as business performance changes, increasing as your revenue grows.

Fast and easy application process

Apply online and receive a funding decision in as little as an hour with our secure application. Once approved, you'll receive a login and be able to access funds for your business within 24 hours.

He helped me through out the loan process and he made it happen Sam answers phone call as quickly as possible he his just too helpful and professional

Daniela-Customer Service

Her solutions that has helped my company are most appreciated in this difficult economy. Revenued have demonstrated their commitment to customers by helping us find mutually beneficial solutions to keep our business in operation when things get challenging. Thank You for having such great staff to assist this customer.

Vitiola was great customer service rep

Vitiola was great customer service rep. She answered all my questions. She even called me back with more information just like she said would. I normally don't write Reviews but an exception for Vitiola's awesome help.
